INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS: Please refer to your Estimation of Fees included in your acceptance package.

Please note that only Nelson Mandela University receipts issued at the official cashier pay points, bank-stamped deposit slips and electronic fund transfers (EFTs) into Nelson Mandela University's bank account will be accepted. EFTs must indicate that the transaction was successfully processed.

Internet and direct bank payments do NOT reflect immediately on your student account and processing may take up to two days. Down payments must therefore be made two days prior to registration. Registration will be blocked until the payment reflects on the student account. Queries will be attended to only after the two days have expired. A copy of the bank deposit slip/internet proof of payment is required. After the queried payment has been identified on Nelson Mandela University's bank statement, the student will be able to continue with registration.

There are no Cashier Pay Point facilities at the registration venues. Due to the location of the Cashier Pay Points, you are advised to pay before proceeding to the registration venues.

Payment methods

Cashier Pay Points at all campuses
Payments made at Nelson Mandela University Cashier Pay Points in respect of your registration down payment will immediately reflect as a credit on your student account. All cheque payments must be made payable to Nelson Mandela University and crossed “not transferable”. Altered or post-dated cheques will not be accepted. Verify that the amount paid and student number reflects correctly on your receipt.

Card payments

Card payments in respect of application, printing and tuition fees can be made via the Nelson Mandela University website under Online Payment of Fees or at <https://paymentgateway.mandela.ac.za/>

Credit cards

If access to the internet is not available, a credit card instruction form is obtainable from the Nelson Mandela University cashiers at contact number 041-5044291. Upon receipt of the completed instruction form, the payment will be processed. The completed credit card instruction form must be emailed to studentaccounts@mandela.ac.za. Budget plan payments are acceptable.

No “cash back” transactions are allowed on credit card payments.

Debit cards

No “cash back” transactions are allowed on debit card payments. Debit cards can only be accepted if presented by the card holder.

Postal and money orders (purchased from the Post Office)

These are to be made payable to Nelson Mandela University. When purchasing postal orders it is essential that you complete your details on the back of the postal order before posting it to Nelson Mandela University. Your student number must be included in the covering letter.

Electronic fund transfers

If you choose to pay Nelson Mandela University directly via electronic fund transfer (EFT), it is important that you indicate your STUDENT NUMBER as your deposit reference. This will enable us to associate the payment with your student account.

The beneficiary must be Nelson Mandela University for electronic payments. Kindly ensure that the bank details of Nelson Mandela University and your student number are captured correctly. Electronic banking is at the payer’s own risk. The proof of payment presented to Nelson Mandela University must indicate that the transaction was successfully processed. Post-dated payments are not acceptable.

Direct deposits (at any bank)

Direct deposits can only be acknowledged if you state your STUDENT NUMBER (without the ‘s’) as a reference on your deposit slip. Your student number will enable us to associate the payment with your student account. The beneficiary must be Nelson Mandela University. Verify that the amount paid, bank account and student number reflect correctly on your deposit slip.

Nelson Mandela University banking details for down payments:

Nelson Mandela University does not issue receipts for direct deposits and electronic payments made via the bank account or for payments received by mail.

The 2018 Student Accounts Guide contains all the rules and regulations pertaining to student fees and will be emailed to students.

It is also available on the Nelson Mandela University website at:

www.mandela.ac.za/studentaccountsguide

International students: Please refer to your Estimation of Fees in your acceptance package. For enquiries please contact the International Office at +27 (0) 415042161 or email intfees@mandela.ac.za

Sponsorships

Confirmation of sponsorship for 2018 must appear on official company letterhead and must be addressed to Nelson Mandela University. The letter of authority must be submitted annually to the Student Accounts section before registration, but not later than 10 January 2018.

Letters of authority will only be accepted from pre-approved companies and are subject to the approval of Nelson Mandela University.

Sponsorship and bank loan confirmation letters must indicate that payments will be made directly to Nelson Mandela University and must contain your student number. An application for a loan or bursary is not acceptable.

This letter must confirm sponsorship. Sponsorship letters may not contain commitment conditions and conditions that are subject to academic performance. The signee may not be the student or a relative. Such letters will not be accepted.

The sponsorship amount should exceed the down payment required upfront for 2018. You will be expected to pay the difference before registration if the sponsorship amount is less than the down payment required. Clearance must be obtained from the Student Accounts section before registration. A copy of the letter should be in your possession at registration.

Email sponsorship confirmation to studentaccounts@mandela.ac.za

International students: Email sponsorship letter prior to registration for approval to intfees@mandela.ac.za

Nelson Mandela University administered awards/grants/ bursaries

The award/grant/bursary amount should cover the upfront down payment required for 2018. In all instances where the award/grant/bursary amount is less than the required down payment, you will be expected to pay the difference before registration AND obtain clearance from the Student Accounts section. If the award/grant/bursary amount exceeds the required upfront down payment, automatic clearance for registration is granted. A copy of the award/grant/bursary letter should be in your possession during registration.

NSFAS loans (administered by Nelson Mandela University on behalf of NSFAS)

Successful NSFAS candidates with a family contribution of less than R8000 per month are not required to make a down payment before registration. Automatic clearance for academic registration is granted. In some instances residence fees will not be covered by the NSFAS loan and the student will be required to make the residence down payment.

Residence students

Please note that you have to pay:

- ◆ The down payment towards your tuition fees and
- ◆ The down payment towards your accommodation fees.
The relevant amounts are published in the 2018 Student Accounts Guide and are available on the Nelson Mandela University website.
- ◆ A breakage deposit is applicable to all residence students. The relevant amount will be debited to your student account. The amounts vary per residence and are published in the 2018 Student Accounts Guide and on the Nelson Mandela University website.

Lectures commence

Monday, 5 February 2018 (all full-time and part-time students)

Opening of residences

Sunday, 21 January 2018

Residence registration will take place at the various registration venues as part of the academic registration process. On-campus residence students can also register online for residence.

Parking permits

The parking permit is free but compulsory for your safety. You must have the following details regarding the vehicle: model (year) and make, colour of the vehicle and the vehicle registration number.

Lecture timetables

You will receive a lecture timetable when you register. This will also indicate where you have to go for your lectures.

Official notices

Nelson Mandela University's preferred way of officially communicating with students is via e-mail. Each student will receive an e-mail address for his/her personal use. Please read your e-mails on a regular basis. It will be accepted that you have received an official communication if such communication has been e-mailed to you.

My Stuff

You can access your own data on the Nelson Mandela University Student Information System on the Student Portal. This data is protected by your PIN, student number and date of birth, and includes only your exam results, progress reports, financial statement and academic record. You can also close this access by selecting the Opt Out option.

Once you are registered as a student, you may follow the following steps to access your information:

If you login from home/off-campus

- ◆ Logon to the website – www.mandela.ac.za
- ◆ Scroll to the bottom of the screen and click Student Portal (bottom right of the screen).
- ◆ Follow the steps from the second bullet, from the procedure listed below.

If you login from any PC on campus:

- ◆ Go to the Student Portal (all registered students have access to the Student Portal).
- ◆ Click my information.
- ◆ Scroll down and click ITS Student Web access.
- ◆ Click go to ITS Student Web.

- ◆ You will now get to a screen where you have to enter your student number and pin (you can request a pin if you don't have a pin number – follow the instructions on the screen). Click on login.
- ◆ Click Student Administration (on the left of the screen).
- ◆ You can change your contact details by selecting the personal contact detail option.

Nelson Mandela University Mobile Portal

To view the mobile version of the Nelson Mandela University student portal, enter <http://newportal.mandela.ac.za> into your internet-enabled device's browser. You will be prompted for a username and password. Enter your Nelson Mandela University username (mandela\s123456789) and password. The mobile version of the student portal will be loaded.

Checklist for registration

VERY IMPORTANT

- ◆ Upfront down payment/s must be paid by 10 January 2018. If you paid via the bank after 10 January 2018, did you email a copy of your payment confirmation to studentaccounts@mandela.ac.za for clearance before reporting to the registration venue?
- ◆ Copy of the bank payment(s) must be in your possession.
- ◆ If you are sponsored for 2018, did you email a copy of your confirmation letter to studentaccounts@mandela.ac.za by 10 January 2018?
- ◆ Copy of the sponsorship/award/bursary/grant/loan confirmation letter must be in your possession.
- ◆ Does your sponsorship/award/bursary/grant/loan cover your required down payment fully? If not, did you pay the difference before registration?
- ◆ Do you comply with the minimum admission requirements and conditions as stipulated in your letter of provisional acceptance?
- ◆ Nursing Science programmes: Professional board payment receipts must be produced at registration.

Note: You have to report to the venue for online registration as stipulated below. You will not be allowed to enter the venue outside of the specified time-slot. We strive to provide you with the best possible service and therefore need your co-operation to adhere to the dates and time-slots as indicated below. You may also lose your place to study at Nelson Mandela University if you fail to register on the relevant dates, as stipulated below.
